FORT STREET GALLERY MESSRS. GREEN. 139 A large collection of Views of British Columbi

Customs Revenue.

It will doubtless be within the reads er's recollection that, during last session of the Legislature, the question of a choice of tariffs was postponed or complicated by a resolution introduced by the Senior member for this city. The resolution was as follows:

That this Council earnestly solicits His Excellercy the Governor to move the Government of the Dominion to consent to the alteration of the existing British Columbian alteration of the existing British Columnian Tariff by the Legislature of the colony during the pre-ent session to the following effect:—

The duty on spirits to be reduced to the rate imposed by the existing Canadian Tariff, vig. 80 cents per gallon.
The duty on flour to be reduced to 75 cents per barrel, and on wheat to 10 cents per pushel.

The council being convicced that such changes would result in material benefit to British Grlumbia and to the whole Dominion; and that His Excellency the Governor be pleased to communicate this resolution. to the Governor General of Canada by tele-

In pursuance of this resolution telegraphic communication was had between His Excellency Governor Musgrave and Lord Lisgar. The reply to the proposition conveyed in the above resolution was to the effect that, the Terms being in the nature of a treaty, there could be no interference with them without reopening the whole subject and renewing negotiations, but that the proposition would form a legitimate subject for the consideration of the Dominion Parliament, after union. No time was lost in submitting Lord Liegar's reply to the Legislature, whereupon a lengthy discussion arose, which result-ed to the passage of a resolution moved the Senior member for Victoria city. and which was as follows :-

Whereas, in reply to a resolution passed by this Council and transmitted to the Governor General of Canada, a telegraphic message was received from Lord Lisgar stating that after the acceptance of the terms of union by Canada the Parliament of the Dominion may, in its discretion, modify the British Columbian tariff upon the request of British Columbia. That this Council resolves that His Excellency the Governor will be pleased to communicate to Lore e desire of this Council, viz: Tha the Governor General will be pleased to la before the Parliament of Canada that the tariff of British Columbia may be altered as follows: That the duty on spirits may be reduced to the Canadian standard; that the duty on wheat be reduced to ten cents per bashel . that the duty on flour be reduced eventy five cents per barrel. That this Council asks this, feeling that it will prevent a great deal of harm to British Columbia and thus do much good to the Dominion

As the result of this last resolution, the Governor has received a dispach from Ottawa, announcing the intention of the Dominion Government to submit the matter to Parliament at its next session. We may mention, parenthetically, that his His Excellency has, at the same time, been advised of the consent of the Canadian Government to the removal of the duty of fifty cents, per gallon, imposed on spirits for telegraphic purposes. We conceive ourselves to be justified in saying that, as the result of this, the obnoxious spirit tax will be at once removed; and thus the lightning of beaven will no longer be mad, to serve the purposes of British Columbians at the expense of a tax upon what is com monly known in these parts as 'chain-Reverting to the subject proper of the present article, we must be permitted to congratulate the Hon Dr Helmcken upon the measure of success which has been attained by his resolutions. Not, however, that we feel at all sanguine as to the ultimate practical results; for although the Canadian Government have undertaken to submit the point to Parliament, as was to have been expected, it by no means tollows that the concurrence of Parliament will be obtained; for we do not for a moment suppose that it will bave the advantage of coming bef re Parliament as a Government measure, in the strict sense of that term. Our ressons for doubting the willingness of Parliament to make any change in the basis of union which will give British Columbia still better terms have been so recently and so fully discussed in these columns that it will not be deemed necessary to advert to them now. Assuming, for argument's sake, the conwe must still ques tion the expediency of deciding to retain our present tariff, in preference to accepting the Canadian of deciding It must be remembered that at the time our Legislature sought the consent of Canada to reduce the duty on flour to seventy-five cents and the duty on wheat to ten cents these two articles carried a duty of twenty-five cents and five cents respectively under the Canadian teriff. Now the duty is removed from both. Upon the principle that misery is said to like company, it might have been some little consolution to the colonists in the Pacific Province to know that if they had to pay a federal bread tax cf seventy-five cents their fellow-subjects on the opposite rim of the continent had to pay twenty-five cents; but even that consolation, poor as it is, would be absent, now that the Canadians have free bread. Undoubtedly the change which the Parliament of Canada is to the change which the parliament of Canada is to be read-would leasen the in-

be asked to make would lessen the in-

In Memoriam--From W. K. B

Poace to thy memory,
Poor William Emory;
Thou hast lought toy last fight
And won thy last battle;
And art now in the grace
Free from the rastle,
The noise and the strife
Of this sad weary life. Of this sad weary life.
Ah I well I romember
Thy f oldskome ways,
Beguiling so oft life's gloomy days,
Thou dust beherily toil,
But when day's work was done,
Would'at throw away care,
And with hamour and tun
Would'at share in the glee
Of the happy and free.
All short was thy line— Of the happy and free.
Ah! short was thy time—
Boos clored thy life's play,
For at young thirty-three
Thou wor't hurried away.
Thou ha! fauts, who has not!
In the grave set them so,
Passed by and foract;
But the gestal in thee
Will live long in the memory
Of those of thy friends, poor William Emory.

THE TREATY OF WASHINGTON -- Infour Exclusive Dispatches will be found news of more than ordinary interest. If one may venture to form an opinion from the meagre minion Cabinet information at hand the Dominion Cabinet would appear not to have in any way entargled itself in the uppopular Treaty of Washington; and it would appear that there was no truth in the non-nouncement made in our telegraphic columns a few days ago to the effect that it was the intention of the Covernor Capacal to ratife intention of the Governor General to the treaty without acy reference to Parlia-mant. We succeedy trust that such may prove to be the lant, as we were appre-hencive that Sir John A Macdonald, it not his whole Cabinet, might have been so committed to the obnoxious arrangement as to endanger their being swept from office by the tide of popular indignation,

THE REAL ESTATE TAX COMMISSION-The Commissioners have directed the publication of the following extract from the minutes of their proceedings: 'The Commissioners having considered the arguments of Mesers R E Juckson, M W T Drake and others with regard to the alleged hardship inflinted on mortgagees and lessors in being inflicted on mortgagees and lessors in being compelled to pay taxes originally due by mortgagers or lessees, cannot admit as a general principle that mortgagees and lessors should be exempted, but they are prepared to hear each case of hard-ship which may be brought forward and report thereon to His Excellency the Greenor.

WHITEWASH IT .- To preserve the wood and render the structure 'a thing of beauty and a joy forever ' a coat of whitewash should be applied to the really fine bridge that crosses James Bay. A few dollars invested in lime would insure the Lands and Works a good many 'hundred dollars worth of admiration.

THE natural tendency of things in connection with the construction of the proposed railroad from California via Goose Lake and Southern Idaho to a junction with the Union Pacific at Salt Lake, will be to unite the Oregon and California Railread with that line by an East-ern extension of the Oregon and California road from Rogue river valley.

CONFIRMED .- Government has received an official telegram from Ottawa confirming a statement made in our ExclusiveDispatch some weeks ago, viz., that the position of Licutenant has been tendered to Mr Tilley, whose acceptance is anticipated.

Untinely FATE OF AN INVENTOR -Chas Dorfie, the inventor of a new explosive said to possess from ten to twenty times the effectiveness of ordinary gurpowder, to-gether with a spectator of his experiments and a carpet has full of the new compound, were blown up recently in Pennsylvania. Some difficulty being experienced to getting the tin carttidge containing the explosive into the hole, in which it was intended to test its efficacy, Mr Dorfis attempted to push it down with a stick, when an explosion resulfed which killed Dorfis and McNulty The editor of the USRR and Mining Regiter, in commenting upon the occurrence, says that only a short time since he in company with Dr Genth and another gentheman carefully inspected the loading and firing of a hole at a quarry near Philadelphia, by the same experimenter. He describes the explosive compound, as shown by the way in which the rock was torn, as much greater than esemed possible from the sound produced by the explosion. Although the entire stock of the compound which Dorfis had with him was exploded, and it is doubtful whether any more of it exists in this country, a considerable supply is known to have eays that only a short time since he in com try, a considerable supply is known to have try, a considerable supply is known to have been left at the Admiralty office in London A chemical analysis of the material left would doubtless show its nature, but in such a case it would perhaps be for the welfare of humanity if the secret of the manfacture, which was, iwe understand, justicularly guarded by the inventor, were allowed to perish with him.

SAVED BY A FISH-That the ocean abounds with wonders is daily being exemplified and seldom more forcibly so than in the experience of Capt Ward of the bark Providence of Hartlepool, who has just returned from Danzic, at which port be Was frozen during the late winter. He states that during his outward voyage to that p rt in November last, the ship sprang a leak during a gale in the Baltic and his crew were all but exhausted in their offerts at the pumps to r duce it. One day sho sud-denly stopped making more water and eventually the vessel reached Dan zie in safety. After the discharge of the cargo arch was made for the leak, resulting in the discovery of a hole in the con re of one of the after planks from the yielding of a knot in the wood and in this aperture was wedged a dead fish, whose collision with the vessel when alive had been the evident cause of the stoppage of the leak and consequent sal-

Both in New Brunswick and Nova Scotis popular feeling runs high against the TREATY OF WASHINGTON;

although amongst those classes directly interested in fishing it is not regarded with envire disfavor, because it throws the American markets open to them. The Legislatures of the former Provinces have pronounced unanimously against what has been put be-fore the public as the fishery provision, and that body shows a disposition to linger in gession until the whole truth shall be known, in order to take definite action before proro gration, the present being its last session. New Brunswick feels particularly interested in the Treaty, as it is assorted that the single tem of the abolition of the export duty on lumber will deprive her of some forty thousand dollars of annual revenue. The approaching

ANGLO CANADIAN BOAT RACE

Is exciting a good deal of interest. I now allode to the contest arranged to come off in August next on the Kenebecesis, near St John, N B, between the famous Renforth, of the Tyne, and the St John or Paris crew.
Recent St John advices state that the preliminary arrangements have been completed and the deposits made, and a highly inter-esting time is anticipated. The St John crew are said to be very confident of winning back the laurels accidentially, as it is asserted, spatched from them at Luchine, last year. Time must, however, decide all such matters. Nova Scotia is now in the heat of a general election, and

THE VETERAN MOWE has, gone for Witkins & Co, in a series of letters, wherein he handles that pack' without gloves. It Joseph's pen and ink portraits of these men be faithful or even approximately so, the 'Buenoses' may well exclaim 'From Wilkins and all such men, good Lord deliver us.' In alluding to these productions of art, the Toronto Telegraph thus concludes a puncent article:—'Those who say that Joseph Howe has lost the energy and meetal vigor of other days are very much mistaken. These letters show most conclusively that These letters show most conclusively that there is life in the old dog yet, and that ne is an opposent neither to be des-pised nor trifled with, but rather one to be reared and avoided. It is asserted that thowe's letters are most damaging to the anti-Confederate party who have done so much cowards readering Nova Scotia ridiculous. It is not quite decided yet who will look after the affairs of the

during the absence of Mr Sandford Fleming, who goes to the Pacific to superintend the survey of your and of the great railway. It is understood that all the bridges of the In-tercolonial will be of iron, and it is stated that the contract for those having two bundred feet space has been given to an Ameri can Company, the contract for the smaller ones to a British Company. Our leading local paper, the Times, has an editorial article

MR ALPRED WADDINGTON

According to the Times, both Canada and British Columbia will be largely indebted to that gentleman, as he has not only brought much valuable information to bear upon the subject, but he has by interested the raining much the but he has, by incessant harping upon the Pacific Railway, done much towards forcing ts upon public attention, and accustoming the mind to thank of it as a tangible reality. mind to think of it as a tangible reality. A few words about the relative strength and position of POLITICAL PARTIES May not be uninteresting, now that you begin to feel yourselves a part of Canada. It would hardly be fair to accept the divisions on the Union Resolutions as a true gauge of the relative strength of parties in the Commons; for, although the vote which reduced the Government majority to twanty one was a party was a party. although the vote which reduced the Government majority to twenty-one was a party vote, it was something more. Thirteen members who, upon all ordinary occasions may safely be counted upon as supporters of the present Government, crossed the floor with the 'Grits.' This result may be attributed to avariety of reasons. Some had the fear of the general election before their eyes, thinking that the Grits would make capital out of a question upon which they, themselves, were question upon which they, themselves, were by no means clear. Others honestly thought the terms too good, while the more timid shrank from undertaking the construction of the railway from undertaking the construction of the railway in so short a period. But a third cause will probably account for at least half of the recalcitrant members. In Sir George E Cartier, Quebec had a leader of no mean order, and when the gallanc Knight of Montreal sprang to his feet for the test yets and with Gorin his cause. for the test vote, and, with fire in his eyes, shouted, in his slightly broken English,

"ALL ABOARD FOR THE WEST!" It was really beautiful to observe how the Quebec supporters of the Government wheeled into line and followed the Minister of War to the attack. But where was, the Knight of Kingston, at that critical moment? For manipulating men and mustering followers for the Attack probable Su. Leat A Medoners for the attack, probably Su John A Macdonald for the attack probably Su John A Macdonald is without an equal, unless, indeed, Sir George may presume to dispute his claim. But, unfortunately he was absent, and it is quite understood that this circumstance told materially upon the division. If you take the thirteen votes to which I have alluded from the Opposition and add them to the twenty-one, you have thirty-tour as the Govno contemptible majority, it will be admitted, in a House of one nundred and eighty-one. Such may be accepted as a fair idea of the relative strength of parties in the presentflouse of Commons; not, however, by any means, that all those who voted against the Governthat all those who voted against the Government upon the Union Resolutions, save the thirteen deserters, form one party, Thomot'oy crowd is a heterogeneous mass composed of Rouges, Grits, Independents, and Loosefish, a medley the component parts of which could not be be solidified in one political party, when he patent influence of the even by the potent influence of the

It is quite certain that the Ontario Grits hope for considerable accessions to their ranks, as the result of the general election next year; but in this I think they will be mistaken, es pecially if the Government should be enabled to place a satisfactory report upon the Pacific Railway before the House at its next session. Railway before the House at its next session. And you will have seen that the Opposition would have to gain a large number of seats in order to get a majority. The Province of Manitoba has sen its quota of support to the Government, and will doubtless do so to the new Parliament. British Columbia will be expected to send six good men and true and thus the Government majority will rise above forty, — rather more, I think, than the most sanguine Grit can hope to gain by the election.

Washington, Jugo 2 - Numerous com-plaints have been received at the Treasury Department from merchants and manulac-turers at Plattsburg, N Y, that there is so much smuggling along the Canadian border as to seriously injure them in business. Several cases involving thousands of dollars are réported. A special dispatch says reports from many priceipal points on the border show that the new treaty does not contain any provision for reciprocity, which they say would be of no advantage to the Americans. Canadar-it is urged, neither produces anything which we need and one not produce ourselves, nor furnishes a market for American goods.
